

Chad Mason

Heart of America Fly Fishers Spring Program

Saturday, February 21, 2009

9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Continental Breakfast to start at 8:30 a.m.

MDC Discovery Center

4750 Troost Ave., Kansas City, MO

Club members: $40.00

after, February 1, 2003: $45.00

Nonmembers: $50.00

Registration fee includes a lunch catered by Alpine Catering

Fishing the Mid West and Fly Fishing Tips:

Learn the tactics employed by one of America's great fishermen for pursuing 17 species of fish in locations in the Mid Western states and drivable from Kansas City.

Fly Tying for Mid West Fishing:

Thoughts and demonstrations on designing and tying Mid Western state flies.

Fly Casting:

Learn Chad's basics and fundamentals suitable for all fly casters in locations around the Mid West.

An active professional outdoor writer for many years, Chad is a regular contributor to Fly Rod and Reel Magazine. Chad resides in Des Moines Iowa with his wife and three daughters.

He is also a columnist for Gun Dog and Shooting Sportsman magazines and a contributing writer to Outdoor Life. Chad's original fly patterns have been featured on the cover of Fly Tye. His collection of hunting essays, Voices on the Wind (CountrySport Press, 2002), received the rare Must-Read rating from Today's Books magazine in the "Environment & Spirituality" category.

Chad has fished extensively throughout the Midwest and used his experiences as the basis for an article appearing last year in Fly Rod and Reel Magazine about fishing Midwest streams.

Questions? Call Don Grundy @ 816-781-9019 or Dick Martin @ 816-781-9557

Send checks made payable to HOAFF, to: Paul Bennetts, P.O. Box 731, Shawnee Mission, KS 66201